

ROYAL RESORTS® KEEPS GUESTS ENTERTAINED
WITH EXCITING SPORTS AND ACTIVITIES

One of the delights of vacationing in a subtropical climate is the focus on the sea and the myriad opportunities it offers for recreation. Cancún pioneer resort group Royal Resorts® is renowned in the industry for the wide range of sports and social activities available to its guests, many of which are free of charge.

The commitment to quality that forms part of the Royal Resorts mission statement means that each of the properties offers the sports and leisure pursuits that guests have come to expect. Whether it's tennis, sailing from a private marina or lounging on a beach or poolside, the quest is to offer unequalled amenities.

Each club has a daily social activities program with plenty of exciting options for all ages. The schedule is available in the Social Activities Center, at the Sports Desk and from the Concierges. Guests can participate in activities staged at the sister clubs, and the most popular events are repeated in different locations throughout the day.

Snorkel gear, tennis rackets and balls, bicycles, golf clubs and sailboats can be signed out at the Sports Desk. At the Activities Center guests can also sign up for a variety of fun sessions including yoga, zumba, aerobics, beach volleyball, bingo, Spanish lessons, salsa, and craft workshops. Teenagers will find plenty to entertain them, including Xbox and Guitar Hero. The Kids Clubs offer supervised fun activities ranging from sand castle building, mini Olympics, ping-pong and pool fun to treasure hunts, piñata making and face painting for children aged four to 12 years.

Theme dining nights, some featuring live music and dance presentations are also staged during the week at the different resorts.

The resorts have unique qualities of their own and members and guests are encouraged to visit them all. A free shuttle bus service operates between the four Cancún resorts during the day (reservations required).

The Royal Islander[®] and The Royal Caribbean[®], adjacent properties on one of Cancún's loveliest beaches, offer guests double the amenities.

At The Royal Caribbean, an activity center, kids club, floodlit tennis courts and a gym complement sailing from the private marina and lounging at freshwater pools. The Royal Islander's enormous, free-form pool with swim-up bar is the property's focal point and sits across from the Iberostar Cancun golf course. There are tennis courts and a half basketball court. Just over the road, the full-service marina offers sailing, fishing, windsurfing, water skiing and wave runner rentals.

The Royal Sands[®] has three swimming pools, a kids pool, tennis courts and a basketball court, a dive shop, water sports desk, marina, kids club and social activities center and also offers a full-service Spa for those who would prefer to relax and be pampered. The facility boasts a sauna, steam room, jacuzzis, gym and beauty salon, and treatments range from facials, massages, aromatherapy and detoxifying body wraps to anti-stress formulas.

The Royal Cancun[®], is located across the island from the other resorts on the shores of the bay facing Isla Mujeres. It has two swimming pools with bridges, palm-shaded islands and a swim-up bar. A gym, tennis courts and a half basketball court, activities center, kids club, snorkeling and sailboats keep guests entertained. Kayak trips through the Nichupte lagoon are available during the week and guests can also try their hand at paddle boarding.

Unlike many Riviera Maya resorts which use golf cart shuttles to transport guests to the beach, all the suites and rooms at The Royal Haciendas[®] in the Riviera Maya are just steps away from the spectacular shoreline. The soft white sand captivates sun worshippers, and the calm, clear waters of the bay are perfect for swimming and kayaking. A small coral reef and several rocky outcrops are a haven for a variety of colorful fish and sea creatures such as parrot, butterfly and angelfish, blue tangs and octopus.

The Royal Haciendas offers guests an impressive array of amenities. There are four large pools, two of which are infinity pools for relaxation and fun and two are semi-

Olympic lap pools. Large whirlpool tubs, sun decks, swim up bars, children's pools and shaded hammock areas are added attractions in the pool areas.

For the activity-minded, The Royal Haciendas has floodlit tennis courts and a multiuse court for soccer and basketball, a sports desk where guests can sign out tennis rackets, snorkel gear and kayaks, and a gym. A dive center offers trips to reefs in the Riviera Maya and Cozumel and PADI resort courses are available for guests who would like to learn how to dive.

Families enjoy the resort's daily activity program for children, teenagers and adults, featuring sports, beach games and crafts. They can check the daily program at the Activity Center and the kids club.

For the ultimate in Riviera Maya relaxation, The Royal Haciendas has a Spa offering an exclusive collection of herbal, fruit and marine therapies and a beauty salon to complete the pampering experience.

Royal Resorts guests are entitled to special discounts at several golf clubs in Cancún and the Riviera Maya and they can participate in special Royal Day golf tournaments offered by the courses. These are a great way for guests to keep up their game, have fun and meet other players.

Thomas More Travel is the travel agency at Royal Resorts and has been showing guests the wonders of the Yucatan for over 30 years. It has a tour desk in each resort and offers a variety of excursions to theme parks, nature reserves and Mayan sites in the area surrounding Cancun. Popular options are the area's famous eco and adventure parks such as Xcaret Park, Xel-Ha, Xoximilco, Xenotes Oasis Maya, Xplor, Xenses, Ventura Park, Selvatica and Aktun Chen. For history buffs, trips to the archaeological sites of Tulum, Cobá, Chichén Itzá, Ek Balam and Uxmal and the colonial cities of Merida, Valladolid and Izamal are recommended. Guests can set sail for a visit to the islands of the Mexican Caribbean: Isla Mujeres and Cozumel. For nature lovers, there are eco trips to Sian Ka'an and Rio Lagartos Biosphere Reserves and Contoy island bird sanctuary. Jungle zip lining adventures, snorkeling and diving trips are also available. For those who enjoy exploring at their own pace, private tours can be arranged and there is an on-site car rental agency.

Royal Resorts takes pride in providing activities for everyone. As one guest recently observed, "There is so much to do. You can just relax on the beach, take day trips or participate in water sports of all kinds. We never tire of Cancún and look forward to returning here every year."
