

EL CONQUISTADOR
A hidden treasure at The Royal Islander®

Royal Resorts® is proud to unveil one of Cancun's best-kept secrets, El Conquistador Restaurant at The Royal Islander®. Since 1985, this intimate little restaurant has been a favorite with Royal Resorts members and guests for its mouthwatering cuisine, attentive service and live guitar music, and now Cancun visitors and residents in search of fine dining can also savor a romantic candlelit dinner in this enchanting spot.

Featuring French, Italian and International specialties, seafood and prime Angus steaks, the menu at El Conquistador is designed to tempt the taste buds of the most demanding diner. There are dishes for every taste and occasion, and the tableside flambées are a house specialty.

Diners can start the evening with Wild Mushroom Crostini, Carpaccio, Oyster Rockefeller, Portobello Mushroom with Seafood au gratin, or Tuna Sashimi, among other tempting choices. There are crisp salads and several soups, including Clam Chowder and the chef's French Onion Soup. Entrées include Crab Cioppino, Tequila Shrimp, Caribbean Lobster, grilled Salmon or Octopus, Filet Mignon, Chateaubriand and Herb-crusted Rack of Lamb.

Diners can also choose a tableside flambée, such as Steak Diane, tender Angus beef medallions sautéed with mushrooms and onions and served in a red wine sauce or the El Conquistador Shrimp. Flambéed desserts including Banana Flambée, Cherries Jubilee and Crepes Suzette are equally superb, and diners should save space for one of the specialty coffees.

The wines served at El Conquistador were carefully selected to enhance menu choices and the list includes wines from Mexico's leading producer, Baja California, the United States, France and Italy.

El Conquistador is the home of master guitarist Jorge Durán who has been entertaining Royal Resorts guests for over 30 years with his interpretation of classical favorites, Spanish flamenco, romantic ballads, pop hits, movie themes and his original compositions. Diners can enjoy Jorge Durán's music every evening except Saturday.

El Conquistador is the perfect setting for dinner with family and friends to celebrate special occasions such as birthdays, engagements, weddings and anniversaries.

Located at The Royal Islander, Kukulcan Blvd. km 17 in the Hotel Zone, El Conquistador is open from 5 to 11 p.m. (closed Saturday).
